

For Sale – 1992 KME Engine $25,000 or OBO

Location of Engine: Lewis County Volunteer Fire Department
298 Lions Lane
Vanceburg, KY 41179

Contact Information: Additional questions can be directed to Chief Aaron Gilbert by calling 606-498-9201.

Payment: Funds are to be collected in the form of a cashier's check or bank-certified check.

Description of Truck:

- 1992 KME Fire Engine- Allison automatic transmission with 300 hp Cummins.
- 8,966 miles
- HALE 1,250 GPM pump with a Steel 500-gallon tank.
- 6-man cab with 4 SCBA jump seats
- Passed recent pump test
- 3 pre-connected cross-lays, 3 ladders (24-foot, roof and attic), Deck gun
- Rear Direct Fill

The Lewis County Volunteer Fire Department is seeking to sell (1) a 1992 KME Fire Engine. This apparatus is being sold as is with no guarantees or warranties on any conditions. The vehicle has a clear title in hand. The fire truck will have to be moved by the buyer within 14 days of the sale. If the fire truck needs to be shipped it will be at the buyer's expense. The fire truck is located at the Lewis County Fire Department 298 Lions Lane Vanceburg KY, 41179. Interested persons are encouraged to make a site visit and survey the fire truck by appointment with Chief Aaron Gilbert by calling 606-498-9201 or emailing lcvfd887@gmail.com